

Mastery Schools

March 12, 2020

Mastery Families,

We apologize for the late notice, but Governor Wolf's decision to close Montgomery County schools is creating a great deal of confusion and many of our staff are scrambling to find childcare. To prevent a chaotic and potentially unsafe situation tomorrow, we will close all Mastery Schools tomorrow, Friday March 13th. Our expectation, absent any additional information, is that school will reopen on Monday. The situation is fluid, so we will be in touch and share any updates over the weekend.

Again, we apologize for the late notice and appreciate your support during this crisis.

Scott Gordon, CEO Mastery Schools Network
